The Courier-Gazette

THREE-TIMES-A-WEEK

Rockland, Maine, Dec. 2, 1919.
Personally appeared Neil S. Perry, who on oath declares: That he is president in the office of the Rockland Courier-Gazette of Nov. 29, 1919, there was printed a total of 6,134 copies before me.
J. W. ROCKRIDER,
Notary Public.

EVERY-OTHER-DAY

With this issue The Courier-Gazette enters upon its enlarged career as a three times a week home newspaper, appearing each Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday forenoon. Pressure in many directions has brought about this expansion. It gives the community a new service approximating a daily and we are confident will meet the requirements of the public.

The paper entered upon its career as a semi-weekly in 1907—nearly 23 years ago. There was doubt in some quarters whether such doubling of issues would prove profitable; but a nearly doubled circulation and an advertising patronage that has outgrown its natural bounds disproved the fears and now lead color to the belief that the present increase may be attended by a similar happy result.

Probably not every subscriber will remain upon our lists. The increase of price will doubtless affect some that way and we shall be sorry to lose them; but a paper three times a week at $3 is a paper one time a week at $1 and scarcely a weekly paper in the country is issued at that price. It can't be and long exist.

So the Every-Other-Day Courier-Gazette greets its many long-time friends and hopes to make many new ones. Improvements are aimed at that we believe will still further commend the paper to its patrons.

Reports received at the Republican State headquarters from the county proposal conventions held in South Dakota, Tuesday, Nov. 18, show that Gen. Leonard Wood will receive the endorsement of the State proposal convention at Pierre, Dec. 2, for the Republican nomination for President, and that Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois will be given the dissenting or minority endorsement. Proposal men known to be for Gen. Wood in reports thus far received will cast some 30,000 votes as compared to 8,000 estimated for Gov. Lowden. It is expected that this will be about the proportion in which the total vote will divide. If Senator Hiram Johnson enters the South Dakota primary it must be in the independent column of the Republican party ballot.

Among the 400 guests at a banquet tendered to Lord Leverhulme of Port Sunlight, England, in the Somerset Hotel, Boston, Saturday evening, was Robert Green, a traveling salesman well known in this city, who represents Lever Bros. Co., the largest soap manufacturing company in the world. Lord Leverhulme is at the head of this great concern. Mr. Green travels for the factory in Cambridge, Mass., which produces such popular brands as Welcome, Sunlight, Life Buoy, Lux and Rinsu soaps. Mr. Green was in the city yesterday and is looking forward to being present at the annual banquet of the commercial travelers and hotel men which takes place Jan. 22. As toastmaster on a former occasion Mr. Green was a decided star.

In that annual letter with its prompt removal of subscription, James H. McNamara writes from Eagle Rock, N. Y., his southern home, (not his real home, for he never will be weaned from Rockland): "The Courier-Gazette is like letters from home. I couldn't think of doing without it." And he adds: "Come down here, you C. G. people, make me a visit and let me show you this glorious mountain scenery." (Bogorra, Jimmy, that's private we'd be down if the saints would allow.)

The American Women's Legion, Auxiliary to Winslow-Holbrook Post, will hold its regular monthly meeting Friday, Dec. 5, at 3 p. m., in the new club room of the men's Legion. Members are asked to be prepared to pay the yearly dues of 50 cents and those who have not already done so, the $1 initiation fee.

Gov. Coolidge had a plurality of 425,401 votes over Richard H. Jones in the recent Massachusetts election and had a majority over all candidates of 411,657 according to the official announcement of the vote made by the executive council.

The Knox county commissioners held their last regular meeting of the year today. The agenda of the work of the board was completed and signed at a meeting held on the third Tuesday of December.

Towns Are To Join In Campaign To Fight Tuberculosis—The Amounts Are Small, the Object Aimed At Is Splendid.

On December 1st the entire State of Maine begins to buy Red Cross Christmas Seals. An appeal is sent out from the Maine Anti-Tuberculosis Association to every true son and daughter of Maine to buy Christmas Seals. Help push the stupendous health campaign mapped out for 1920. We all know the ravages made by Tuberculosis in our State. We all know what science can do to this disease. We all know it means a fight. The organizing and maintenance of a fighting machine big enough to tackle every inch of Maine territory means the raising of $82,000.

This sum the Maine Anti-Tuberculosis Association has pledged itself to raise before New Year's. It is up to us as citizens to help.

Tuesday evening the State Committee were called together by Governor Milliken, chairman of the committee, at a conference held at the Augusta House. Sixty-seven were present representing business and professional people from every county in Maine. Plans for State-wide action were discussed and the following program for 1920 endorsed:

Maine Anti-Tuberculosis Association Program for 1920.

1. Maintain and strengthen the existing tuberculosis work now being carried on by the local tuberculosis associations of the State.
2. Assist financially in making it possible for physicians and nurses of the State to take special clinical work at the State tuberculosis sanatoria.
3. Provide expert consultation service on tuberculosis at the request of physicians in the several counties of the State.
4. Provide training in public health nursing for nurses desiring to enter this special branch of nursing service.
5. Add to the staff of the Association a director of Public Health Nursing and, in co-operation with the American Red Cross, see that there is at least one Public Health Nurse on duty in each county before the close of the year.
6. Provide Medical Social Service in the State Tuberculosis Sanatoria. This service will be the connecting link between the State Sanatoria, State Anti-Tuberculosis Association and the doctors and nurses throughout the State. It will also assist in providing suitable occupational therapy (work as a part of treatment) and assist patients whose worries about "conditions at home" are retarding recovery.
7. Installation of Modern Crusade Health work in all schools of the State. The "Crusade" provides incentive for children to acquire health habits by introducing the elements of play and competition. Over 4,000 school children of Maine are already doing daily health "crusade" as members of the Crusade Movement.

Every county in Maine will be thoroughly organized for the Christmas Seal Campaign. Appeal is made to each man, woman and child to help. The purchase of every seal means a blow to this dread disease that is the cause of one out of every twelve deaths each year in the State of Maine.

CITIZENS' COMMITTEE NAMED

Will Work With City Government In Providing Memorial To World War Veterans—Doings of the December City Meeting.

Another step toward the creation of a permanent memorial for the veterans of the World War was taken last night, when a committee of 25 citizens was added to the joint standing committee of the City Government already named. The original order, calling for this action, was introduced by Alderman Frank H. Ingraham of Ward 3. It asked for the appointment of a joint special committee from the City Government to make investigations and recommendations as to a suitable permanent memorial for and in recognition of the services of Rockland veterans of the World War; also the appointment of a committee of 25 citizens to act with the joint special committee, together with the commander and chaplain of Winslow-Holbrook Post of the American Legion.

The committee, complete, which has this important and worthy task in hand is thus composed: Representing the City Government—Alderman Frank H. Ingraham, chairman, Martin S. Britto and John M. Richardson, and Councilmen W. M. E. Ewing, Charles H. McIntosh, George A. Achorn and B. C. Perry. Representing Winslow-Holbrook Post—Walter H. Butler, commander, and Rev. W. L. Pratt, chaplain.

Representing the Citizens—David Talbot, A. S. Littlefield, H. N. McDougall, E. S. Bird, F. W. Fuller, F. C. Knight, W. J. Rich, F. S. Sherman, I. L. Snow, O. Gardner, J. L. Donohue, B. F. Smith, George Warren Smith, George B. Wood, W. O. Fuller, W. T. Cobb, F. J. Bicknell, A. B. Crockett, A. S. Black, N. B. Cobb, C. M. Harrington, F. C. Flint, F. W. Wright, F. R. Spear and H. A. Butrum.

R. V. Stevenson and Cornelius Doherty appeared in behalf of the school board to ask the City Government's assistance in completing the necessary repairs on the Oak Grove schoolhouse, Camden street. The congestion at the Tyler building and Purchase street school necessitates additional quarters, and to this end the school board decided to repair and reopen the Oak Grove school, which has not been used for six or seven years. The building, which also serves as polling place for Ward 1, was found to be in a sad state of disrepair, and the school board finds that the expense of repairs will be $600 or $700. Mr. Stevenson, who acted as spokesman, reviewed at length the work which has been done by the board in putting the Grace street, Crescent street, Highland and Benner Hill school houses in first class repair and good sanitary condition, and said that the appropriation for school house repairs is already overdrawn nearly $200. Mr. Stevenson said that the congestion is especially great in the early grades. He paid a fine tribute to the character of the Rockland schools as now conducted, and made an earnest plea for the continuance of the good work, in order to keep pace with the city's growth.

Alderman Britto said that the condition of the Oak Grove school house had not been a big exaggeration. Alderman Ingraham took the ground that the school administration's appropriations and other city funds are handled in a separate and distinct manner, and that the City Government at this time cannot legally appropriate more money for school purposes. And the City Government has troubles of its own with overdrawn appropriations. Mr. Stevenson said that the school board did not accept the responsibility for the Oak Grove school house's present condition, and thought it was up to the City Government to put it in repair. "I think we should at least clean up the place," said Alderman Clement. "I think we will find a way, and a proper way, out of the difficulty," said Mayor Thorndike.

Alderman Titus' order for the acceptance of Gay street place as a public street was referred to the highway committee. The new street runs 400 feet northward from Gay street, thence west to Broadway, and is for the accommodation of the group of houses being erected by the Rockland Building Co. The road will be two rods wide.

Alderman Ingraham's order for an incandescent light on Rankin street, between the residences of Mrs. Emma Lufkin and E. K. Spear, was referred. Mr. Ingraham presented the petition of W. O. Steele and others for an incandescent light near the residence of C. L. Segal on Middle street. The order is in the hands of the lighting committee. Alderman Ingraham also presented the petition of A. S. Littlefield and others asking to have the bridge and sidewalk at the corner of Broadway and Middle street fixed so that water will not stand on the sidewalk. An order for an electric light near C. K. McWhinnie's residence on Oliver street, was referred to the lighting committee.

Ralph A. Smith was elected clerk of the Common Council, to succeed George E. Gilchrist, the new city marshal. Smith held this position before he was elected.

The Rockland Athletic Club was given permission to hold two sparring exhibitions this month.

The Livingson Manufacturing Co. notified the City Government that if a change is to be made in the Line Rock Railroad track on Line street it should ask to have the track and street restored to its original grade.

On recommendation of the city marshal Michael Flynn was appointed special policeman for the East Coast Fisheries Company. Charles T. Briggs was licensed a junk dealer. E. L. Fissett was appointed weigher of coal and measurer of wood and bark.

The City Government is going to revive an old and popular custom by having a banquet. New Year's night is the tentative date.

There was recently organized in the vestry of the Methodist church an organization of young men known as "Beavers." Its object is to bring together the young men of the city for mutual help and good fellowship. It aims to present a clean, vigorous program, including all of the popular athletic sports and exercises. The club is non-sectarian, and open to all young men of this city. Its meetings will be held regularly each Monday evening. The officers are: President, H. A. Perry; secretary, Conrad Hayward; treasurer, Francis Fullerton; chaplain, William H. Smith; assistant chaplain, Rev. J. S. Crossland; chairman of publicity committee, Walter G. Taylor.

PROSPEROUS CLAREMONT

Claremont Commandery, K. T., which has just completed the most prosperous year in its 33 years' history held its annual meeting last night, when these officers were chosen: George L. St. Clair, E. C.; George T. Stewart, G.; E. C. Payson, C.-O.; A. F. Wisner, S. W.; C. C. Starrett, J. W.; A. H. Newberry, P.; G. W. Smith, treasurer; A. L. Malher, recorder; B. J. Philbrook, S. B.; C. L. Robinson, Sec. W.; W. F. Malhot, warder. The installation will take place Monday evening, Dec. 15, and to this ceremony will be invited the Sir Knights' ladies together with De Valois Commandery of Vinalhaven and Camden Commandery, with their ladies. A dance in Temple hall will be one of the features. Past Grand Commander A. S. Littlefield paid a fine tribute to Simon A. Duncan, the retiring eminent commander, during whose administration 33 candidates have been knighted, and receipts have reached $1800. Mr. Littlefield's motion that this be a matter of record was adopted with much enthusiasm. The Commandery has lost five members by death during the year.

This arrangement leaves her more or less time for private instruction.

The annual ball of the N. A. Burpee Rose Co. was one of the most successful that this popular Northend company has given in recent years. There was a large crowd, excellent music by Joseph's Jazz Orchestra, and the best of order. The members of the company desire the public to know how grateful they are for the generous patronage, which has made it possible for them to divide a goodly sum. The company is at present looking after the welfare of 250 of its veteran members, Eugene Perry, who burned his feet so badly while working on one of the fine kilns that hospital treatment became necessary. After leaving that institution it will probably be some weeks before Mr. Perry can resume active work.

The W. C. T. U. will hold a rummage sale Saturday, Dec. 6, in the Everett Spar block, recently vacated by Leslie Cross next to Willis Ayers.

BUCKING THE GINK

The gink certainly is having his inning with The Courier-Gazette. Just as pressman Frank Lyddie was putting the final page of today's issue on the press, he accidentally stumbled and fell, with the heavy form in his arms, strewn its multitudinous pieces of type upon the pressroom floor. Mr. Lyddie was severely hurt. Dr. Waggott bandaged his two arms and will take an x-ray to determine if they are broken. By heroic work on the part of a faithful office force repairs to the types were achieved so that with a delay of only two hours the paper appears on the street.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cohen have moved to Rockland from Belfast, and have leased their home on Union Street, Belfast, to Mrs. Taylor, a former attorney in that city.

Six Belgian horses owned by N. Cool, Sholes are occupying cozy quarters just now in the display window of Cobb's Market, and receiving their due share of public attention.

There will be a ladies' and gentlemen's whist party at the Country Club Friday, Dec. 5. Supper at 6 o'clock. Will members please make reservations for supper before Thursday noon.

The football season just closed resulted in five deaths throughout the country, a much smaller number than for any previous season. In this State alone nine lives were lost during the hunting season.

Thomas Perry Maddocks, formerly of Owl's Head, who has been employed in Bath has entered upon his new duties as assistant manager of Green Bros' store. Mr. Maddocks was in the Overseas service.

Louis and Herman Rosenbloom spent Sunday at their Meguncook Lake camp and put their submarine boat into winter quarters—a feat which required considerable engineering, skill and muscle, and a diving suit.

Penobscot View Grange holds its annual fair at Glen Cove next Friday afternoon and evening. A 6 o'clock supper will be served. Marston will furnish music for the dance. This Grange fair always draws a big crowd.

The big moose which has been attracting so much attention in the window of Cobb's Market will be out this week for public consumption. The person who never ate a juicy piece of moose steak has missed one of the delights of life.

Contributors to this paper are reminded that it is now running on its three trips a week schedule and that the next issue will consequently be on Thursday. Items intended for that issue should, so far as possible, be in this office on Wednesday.

Tomorrow night is the regular meeting of the Sons of Veterans Auxiliary. Circle supper at 6 o'clock, with Mrs. Nellie McKinnay and Mrs. Adelbert Harmon as housekeepers. A large attendance is desired at the meeting as much business of importance is expected.

F. Leslie Whitney, who has been located in Akron, Ohio, the past year, is now employed at the Y. M. C. A. in that city. "Industrial conditions out here are very good," he writes, "and there is a shortage of help all over the city. We are going to have a Maine club (mostly Rockland men)."

Charles I. Davis of Boston, formerly of Rockland, who during the war served as ensign on U. S. S. Sallia, has just been appointed chief engineer of the S. S. Lake Duane. She is a steamship of 2500 gross tons, and is operated by the Munson Line of New York, running between that city and Cuba in the sugar trade.

Two local sportsmen who have lately returned from a conquest of the big woods, had their hunters' instinct keenly aroused yesterday when two wild geese flew westward across Broadway apparently well exhausted. They followed the birds, and bagged one, but the other escaped in the darkness.

Rockland Lodge, A. O. U. W. holds its regular meeting tonight, with supper from 5:30 to 8. The meeting is one of unusual importance as Grand Master Workman R. W. Hanson of Waterville is to be present and officers are to be elected. There will also be class initiation. This lodge is now one of the city's largest fraternal organizations, with a membership of 304.

The steamers Massasoit and Mohawk, owned by the Maine Coast Steamship Line, which have been operated between here and Maine ports, were disposed of at United States Marshall's sale in Boston Saturday. The boats were libeled for repairs and supplies. The Mohawk was sold for $6750. The Massasoit brought $1530. It is understood the company will be reorganized and the two boats operated.

Capt. Lark Whitten, who recently embarked on a voyage to Boston with Capt. Anthony in the good schooner Morris & Cliff, came ashore with his baggage when the vessel got back to Rockland from the loading port. His excuse for not continuing is said to be that his bunk was not large enough, but they say down around the Southend that Lark didn't want to get out of hailing distance from his chum, Capt. Jake Thorndike.

In Friday's issue was reported the decision of the Law Court, sustaining the exceptions of Cora L. Kallio, plaintiff, to the ruling of the presiding justice, expediting the ball in the litigation of affection's case against Mary Elvard, tried at the April term of Supreme Judicial Court. Justice Wilson made the ruling in question. Frank H. Ingraham was counsel for the plaintiff, arguing the case at the Portland Law term.

"Before and After" is the name of a most instructive and entertaining drama to be given in connection with the circle supper at the First Baptist church on Wednesday evening at 6:30. It presents the beautiful consecration of a number of young people to the great task of building a Christian World. It is one of a series of delightful entertainments planned for this winter, in the Baptist church work. Those who see this will go away with a new sense of the meaning of the mission work of the Christian church. Those who cannot come to supper should come to the entertainment at 7:30 sharp.

"THE WITNESS FOR THE DEFENSE"

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY
 NAZIMOVA in "THE BRAT"

This screen play is Nazimova's own adaptation of Maude Fulton's drama of the same name, which had a phenomenal run of more than two years in New York and other big cities throughout the United States and Canada. It is one of those intensely human and appealing stories in which there are smiles and tears. It follows the picturesque career of "the brat," a nameless waif of the streets who, after having been "fired" from the chorus, becomes the protégé of a famous author who takes her to his home and studies her as a type for the heroine of his novel.
